DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

A telephone call was made to Mr. Timothy Wall on 9/25/2007 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

Art Unit: 2614

- I. Claims 1-4, 10-15 and 17-19, drawn to a voice activated dialing performed at a user terminal.
- II. Claims 20-24, drawn to routing voice activated dialing instruction to a network voice activated dialing module via a gateway.
- III. Claims 25-56, drawn to updating a local directory using geographical information to obtain a telephone number.

Inventions I, II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination of voice activated dialing. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination of invention I has separate utility such as using user device to performing voice activated dialing in order to route a call to a destination number. Also subcombination of invention II has separate utility such as a network voice activated dialing module and a gateway, and invention III has separate utility such as using geographical information to retrieve directory number without making a voice activated call. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, and require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
